Job Description

Job Title: Business Intelligence Analyst\Developer
Department: IT
Reporting: Information Manager

Key Objective

The role of the Business Intelligence Analyst\Developer is to help inform decision-making and solve business problems by converting data into information, selecting relevant data from data warehouses, manipulating large datasets, building decision models and facilitating insightful solutions to complex problems.

Main Duties & Responsibilities

- Ensure that the design and operation of the BI solutions are appropriate to meet the information and decision support requirements of the business.
- Liaise with business analyst to develop BI solutions
- Liaise with external IT support providers to ensure effective delivery of relevant services for BI solutions
- Ad hoc data analysis for internal users
- Analyse data to identify business problems and provide solutions
- Develop the appropriate solution, Reports or Cubes using the Microsoft BI Suite as per the technical specifications
- Support and maintain existing database and BI systems
- Implement changes to existing BI systems
- Review SQL Code and SSIS packages to ensure compliance with the defined standards and best practices and ensure optimal performance when released to the production environment
- Maintain full documentation for BI solutions and related services together with associated communications documents

Essential Skills:
- T-SQL (Advance)
- Microsoft BI tools (SSAS, SSRS, Pivot Table, Power Pivot, OLAP and MDX)
- Experience with Dimensional Data modelling

Desired Skills:
- ETL Tools - Microsoft SQL Server Integration Services (SSIS)
- Data mining
- Basic Share Point